

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BLR Aerospace Appoints Bringhurst as New President

Everett, Washington: April 17, 2024 - BLR Aerospace proudly announces the appointment of Clay Bringhurst as its new President. Bringhurst brings a wealth of experience and expertise to his new role, having served as President of Nobles Worldwide alongside his new responsibilities at BLR.

With a career spanning numerous leadership positions, Bringhurst's previous roles include Vice President of Sales and Strategic Development, which preceded his role as President at Nobles in June 2020. Prior to his tenure at Nobles, Bringhurst held the position of Senior Director of Strategy and Business Development at Northrop Grumman's Armament Systems Division. Additionally, his service as a Captain in the United States Marine Corps reflects his commitment to leadership and excellence.

Expressing his enthusiasm for the new opportunity, Bringhurst stated, "I appreciate the chance to contribute to the growth of BLR Aerospace alongside the exceptional team assembled by Mike Carpenter, the retiring President."

In a seamless transition, Mike Carpenter, the former President, will continue to support Bringhurst in his new role as a Senior Advisor until his anticipated retirement later this year. Reflecting on his impending retirement, Carpenter expressed his excitement about the future of BLR Aerospace under Bringhurst's leadership, stating, "I am eager to witness the continued growth of BLR Aerospace and to embark on the next chapter of my life."

About BLR Aerospace

BLR Aerospace, LLC, headquartered in Everett, Washington, provides performance-enhancing products now on more than 10,000 helicopters and airplanes worldwide and is endorsed by industry-leading OEMs such as Airbus Helicopters, Textron Aviation, Sikorsky Aircraft, and Bell Helicopters. For more information, please visit www.blraerospace.com

###

Contact

Amy Xie

425-405-4771

Amy@BLRaerospace.com